

---

Conversation on Race and Reparations

---

Presented by Southern Anti-Racism Network

www.projectsarn.org

Thursday, August 7, 6:00 - 8:00pm
Durham Main Library, 300 N. Roxboro Street

Speakers

William "Sandy" Darity

Samuel DuBois Cook Professor of Public Policy, African and African American Studies and Economics at Duke University; and Director, Duke Consortium on Social Equality

Kirsten Mullen

Folklorist and co-author with William Darity of The Big Payback
http://www.theroot.com/articles/culture/2008/07/the\_big\_payback.html

Larry Reni Thomas

International Organization for Compensation and Reparations for Victims of Wilmington Massacre of 1898, author of The Lady Who Shot Lee Morgan

Theresa El-Amin

SARN Regional Director

The perspective of "a transformation of society" in the injury areas of criminal justice, education, economic inequality, environment (including housing) and health care will be explored.

This event is free and open to the general public. Refreshments catered by Blue Coffee Café.

For more information theresaelamin@aol.com or 919-824-0659