

Controlling Our Own Neighborhoods

Thursday, September 8, 3:00 pm-5:00 pm
Columbus Public Library Auditorium
3000 Macon Road

This community conversation builds on the "Conversation on Community Policing and Crime Prevention" held at Columbus Public Library on August 25. Invited to speak on August 25 were Mayor Tomlinson, Chief Boren, Sheriff Darr, Marshal Countryman and Seth Brown, Director of Crime Prevention.

Only community members who are not elected officials, running for office or working for Columbus Consolidated Government will participate in the fishbowl conversation. Also, the fishbowl participants will be community members who attended the August 25 conversation.

Open Discussion will include everyone in attendance on a 90 second time limit per person for comments or questions.

Event is free and open to the public. Light refreshments will be served.
